Subpart 169.100—General Provisions

§ 169.101 Purpose.

The regulations in this part set forth uniform requirements which are suited to the particular characteristics and specialized operations of sailing school vessels as defined in Title 46, United States Code section 2101(30).

§ 169.103 Applicability.

(a) This subchapter applies to each foreign and domestic vessel operating as a sailing school vessel except as follows:

(1) A vessel of a foreign nation signatory to the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea and which has on board a current valid Safety Certificate; or

(2) A vessel of a foreign nation having inspection laws approximating those of the United States together with reciprocal arrangements with the United States and which has on board a current valid certificate of inspection issued by its government.

(b) This subchapter does not apply to—

(1) Any vessel operating exclusively on inland waters which are not navigable waters of the United States;

(2) Any vessel while laid up, dismantled, and out of service;

(3) Any vessel with title vested in the United States and which is used for public purposes except vessels of the U.S. Maritime Administration;

(4) Any vessel carrying one or more passengers; or

(5) Any vessel operating under the authority of a current valid certificate of inspection issued in accordance with the requirements of Subchapter H or T, 46 CFR parts 70 through 78 and parts 175 through 187, respectively.

(c) A vessel which engages in trade or commerce or carries one or more passengers, cannot operate under a certificate of inspection as a sailing school vessel, but must meet the rules and regulations governing the service in which it is engaged.

§ 169.107 Definitions.
